

22. CONSULTATIONS

The Working Party

Lt Cdr Hamish Craig
Mr Nick Denison (Diocesan Secretary)
Revd Cathy Horder
Mr Brian Kellock
Revd David Osborne (Chair)
Revd Dr Michael Perry
Mrs Sam Woodhouse

Consultations

Rural Affairs Group
Social Responsibility Group
Board of Education Staff
Old Deanery Staff
Council for Ministry
School of Formation
The Administrator, Precentor and Clerk of Works of Wells Cathedral
Revd Jane Eastell, Diocesan Adviser in Prayer & Spirituality
Revd Matthew Thomson, Diocesan Adviser for Health & Healing
Canon Russell Bowman-Eadie, Director of Ministry Development
Mrs Jenny Humphreys, World Mission Adviser
Dr Elizabeth Perry, Christian Aid
Mrs Ruth Kimber, Chair, Somerset NFU
Revd Prof Adrian Armstrong, Hydrologist
Mr Hugh Playfair, Chair, Diocesan Advisory Committee
Mr Paul Toseland, Diocesan Surveyor
Mr Martin Percy, Sustainable Development Officer, Somerset County Council
Ms Anne Bulleid, Lead Officer for Somerset Strategic Partnership
Revd Margot Hodson, Jesus College, Oxford
Revd Dr John Bimson, Trinity College, Bristol
Revd Melvyn Matthews
Ms Mary Colwell, BBC Natural History Unit, Bristol
Revd John Samways
Revd Robin Lodge, Diocesan Liturgical Group
Mr George Chedburn, Architect
Mr Jonathan Hetreed, Architect
Mr Keith Moss, Energy Consultant
Mr Ian Roderick, Chew Magna Go Zero Project
Mrs Rosie Catt, Diocese of Grafton, NSW
Y2K Youth Group, Dinder
Representatives of The Blue School Student Council, Wells

Deanery Synods: Portishead, Crewkerne & Ilminster, Exmoor, Quantock, Sedgemoor, Tone, Axbridge, Bruton & Cary, Frome, Glastonbury, Ivelchester, Shepton Mallet

Appreciation

The Working Party is grateful to all those who took part in the consultations; to all who communicated with questionnaire returns or letters following deanery synod meetings; to Gordon Waddington for the cartoons; to Nick Moss for the 'Ideas Sheet'; to Richard Dixon of the Mendip Environmental Forum for suggestions and to the Revd David Ireson for information and assistance.

The Working Party is particularly grateful to The Schumacher Institute in Bristol for their very generous support and advice.